

Mortlake Nursery

Working Mums Daycare & Pre-School Centre in Mortlake opened in 1992, we are a 50 place setting in a single storey converted Edwardian old school building, spoilt by our direct access to the outdoors for all age groups, making the outdoors a big feature of our nursery.

We have separate groups for under two year olds and over two year olds and also a preschool room for our children to take time out for some specific preschool activities and learning in their year before they head off to school.

Our nursery also runs a Forest School for our pre-schoolers, where they take excursions to Barnes Common and head to the bushy part to explore the outdoors, waterways and tree climbing too in a natural forest learning environment.
